Meet Resident: Iris Metz

I was born at home on a farm in the middle of Nebraska, the youngest of five children. I went to a country school through 8th grade, usually 24 students to one teacher. Then I went to high school in Central City. My senior class had 45 graduates. I started college at Nebraska Wesleyan where I planned to be a nurse. However, I was married as a sophomore, and discovered I was not allowed to be married and a nursing student, so I switched to a Speech & Language major.

My husband was employed by State Farm Insurance. We first moved to Delaware County, eastern Pennsylvania. By this time we had two children—a boy and a girl. We lived there two years, and I had another daughter. Our next move was to central Illinois, where State Farm had its home office. I had another child, a son. I worked as a teacher's aide. After two years, and a divorce, I went back to school at Illinois State University to get my masters degree. I worked as a public school Speech & Language therapist for the next 21 years. I married twice more. All three of my husbands have passed on.

In the meantime, I have indulged my love of travel. In 2006 I moved to the Rogue Valley where my youngest son lives. His daughter and her family will be living in my house (former). And I am happy to be living at Horton Plaza!

Meet our Activities Assistant: Celia Johnson

I was born along the Mississippi River in western Wisconsin. My family is a small, close unit—just my parents, my older sister, and me. When I was 5 we moved to Medford sight unseen after my dad had gotten a better job. We've lived in Medford since, almost 20 years now!

I graduated from North Medford High School in 2013 and began college at Western Oregon University that fall. I graduated in 2017 with a Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology with a minor in sociology. After graduation, I moved back to Medford to prepare for my future. In my spare time, I love to be outside hiking, kayaking, and exploring new places. In the future, I plan to travel to all 50 states and every continent.

I've worked at Horton Plaza for a year and a half now, and love coming to work everyday because of the residents and my coworkers!
